SCHOOL HISTORY

Bishop High School provides a rigorous college preparatory program for young men and women in grades 9-12. Bishop combines the rich heritage of two predecessor schools, Dolores School, which opened in 1914 and Catholic High School, which opened in 1940. The school relocated in 1959 and was renamed in honor of Francisco Garcia Diego y Moreno, the first bishop of California. Bishop is independently operated and is governed by a Board of Trustees.

The school serves the diverse community of Santa Barbara (population 424,000) and is located near downtown Santa Barbara, with access to many cultural, educational and recreational activities. The student population is 265. The class of 2019 is 57. Bishop Diego adheres to the time honored Catholic tradition of educating the whole individual by providing a solid four- year college preparatory curriculum while stressing the importance of faith and service to others.

Bishop High School is proud that its student body represents a small snap shot of Santa Barbara’s diverse community. On average 60 percent of students who attend Bishop Diego High School receive some level of financial aid with an average award of 50% of the annual tuition. 81% of the Class of 2018 was admitted to 4-year institutions.
